

JOIN THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION NOW

It is easy to join AASA through payroll deduction. The American Association of School Administrators (AASA) is the national organization representing school administrators. They have a strong lobby voice in Washington to represent your concerns. AASA also provides a number of valuable benefits to members including publications, job placement services, timely information via the Internet and, of course, the National Convention. This year's Convention will be held in San Francisco and West Virginia has rooms available in the Nikko Hotel.

If it is most convenient for you to participate by spreading out your dues over the year through payroll deduction, WVASA will act as the collecting agency and send in your membership to the national organization. Simply fill out the form below and send it to the WVASA office at 100 Angus Peyton Drive, South Charleston, WV 25303. Make a copy of the payroll deduction form and give it to your county payroll department to have the dues deducted from your payroll check and sent in to WVASA on a monthly basis.

If you choose to pay the entire amount at once, it is best to access the information regarding AASA membership on the web at www.aasa.org/member/index.cfm and mail the check directly to them. They will also take board PO's and credit cards.
